4. Old Business.

a. State Interoperability Governing Body (SIGB). (TABLED) At the January meeting, Mr. John Rockwell advised there were no comments, but the new legislative session just started, and they will see how this year goes and whether they can pull it off in the very near future or make another run of it.

b. Long-term Cost Share Solution. At the January meeting, Mr. Rockwell advised the group that there were no updates.

c. Fiduciary Responsibility Documentation. At the January meeting, Mr. Timothy Woodall stated they were still working this and that one of the milestones is the Life Cycle Management Plan which would help move it along and Motorola then briefed under New Business

d. Radio Inventory (TDMA vs Non-TDMA). At the January meeting, Mr. Paul Fussey briefed he had sent out emails at the end of the year to all of the members regarding what radios they have, and which are FDMA and TDMA according to the serial numbers. He added he had also attached a Subscriber Request Form so agencies can send it in to the Help Desk to have their old radios removed.

e. Fairbanks Rabinowitz Courthouse BDA. At the January meeting, Mr. Rockwell stated that DPS has continued on the engineering work and there were some issues with funding in the beginning, but he had asked APSCS to utilize some of the current RSA monies since they often have RSA monies leftover and to get that project started.

Deputy Commissioner Barlow briefed that he understood the RSA money was to continue the engineering process and order the equipment and they are just waiting for the additional funding. He pointed out that DPS has actually come on board working with the Department Statewide Admin Services director on the appropriateness of a funding source.

f. Motorola Operations Services Contract. At the January meeting, Mr. Woodall stated there had been some turnover in procurement, so they had put this on hold for the moment and were not concerned about the timing yet. He noted they needed to reengage with procurement and get together to talk with them about the strategy to go forward.

Mr. Woodall briefed that he and Scott have had discussions with validating requirements, expanding coverage, and identifying areas off of the past contract where they have run into issues and are getting those together and will address those and see how that all comes out. He stated the important thing is to get the contract officer on board and find out the procedure they want to follow up.

g. Tudor Road Electrical Work. At the January meeting, Mr. Scott Stormo briefed they were working with Motorola engineering on a new modern solution and trying to get the backup battery systems into the PMI maintenance and replacement as part of the new contract.
